Crown Pianos

FOR

Lively Music.

Some people like serious music, some prefer it otherwise.

If you like good, lively, feisty ragtime, with a plucky-punky-poo suggestion of a barjo accompaniment, the Crown piano, with banjo, harp and mando in effects, is the one for you.

It is a good, sound, sensible piano, not to be told from others in its class, but press the lever and it immediately gives forth a tone that sets your feet tapping and your lips puckering for a whistle.

SHIPPING NEWS

The steamer Claudine on her arrival from Maui ports yesterday morning got mixed up with the mid channel buoy and, as a result, had to send her passengers and mail ashore in boats.
Captain Parker, of the Claudine, places the blame for the accident on the dredger which is at present working in the channel.

Parker says that he gave the usual warning of four whistles for the dredger people to get clear. He then went ahead slowly as it was quite dark. When the Claudine was close to the dredger the tender signalled for the steamer to pass to leeward of her. There were no lights on the dredger visible to the Claudine and the position left so little room for maneuvering that the Claudine would have run down the tender had she obeyed the signal.

To avoid this, the Claudine backed running her stern right into the mid-channel buoy. Parker immediately gave the full-stop bell which was promptly obeyed. Nevertheless the propeller blade wrapped a part of the buoy chain around it and also jerked up the anchor.

The Claudine anchored and sent her passengers ashore in boats. Later on the Fearless towed the Claudine into port. The buoy chain and anchor were still attached to the steamer's propeller.—Bulletin.

A cablegram was received here yesterday stating that the Jap liner American Maru had sailed from San Francisco. Her trip to the Orient this time will only extend to Yokohama and Kobe, and at the latter point she is to be put in service as a Japanese troop ship.—Advertiser.

Japan has named the two cruisers she recently purchased from the Argentine Republic, the "Nisshin" and the "Kasuga." They are now enroute to Japan and are being handled by British crew. They are expected to arrive in Japan early in February.

President Alberger of the Nippon-California Tourist Company has notified the Hawaii Promotion Committee that his company is meeting with favorable returns in booking tourists for its first tour to Hawaii which is scheduled to leave San Francisco on January 30, the party arriving here February 5.
